

IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM MAYOR GAVIN BUCKLEY

Are you unable to pay your water and wastewater service bill due to COVID-19? The City of Annapolis may be able to help!

The City of Annapolis received direct federal funding through the CARES Act to help City residents suffering economically as a result of the COVID 19 pandemic. Mayor Buckley has dedicated CARES funding to help families that are struggling to pay their water and wastewater bills during this pandemic through the Water Bill Relief Program.

See the enclosed instruction sheet and application form from Blessed in Tech Ministries, Inc. (BITM) or visit: blessedintechministries.org

OR

You may be eligible for a no-interest payment arrangement.

For information regarding payment plans or funds available through BITM, please contact the City of Annapolis Finance Department 410-263-7953 or email us at utilitybilling@annapolis.gov.

PLEASE NOTE**

Please take these immediate steps to avoid service interruptions.
The City will resume assessment of late fees and cut-off procedures on January 1, 2021
